

Bishop's Corner

God is the Answer

Praise the Lord Saints,

“Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them” (Hebrews 7:25).

Our answer to everything we need and are going through is in God. My desire is that everyone would let God do what He wants to do for him or her. Even if we are not aware of God's presence, He is still there to work out things for us. If we allow God to have control, He would do so much more for us.

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heard; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” (Proverbs 3:5-6)

If we have the attitude that we do not need God, we will miss all that God can do for us. The material things that we have might make us think that we do not need God, but He can give us so much more. “The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it” (Proverbs 10:22).

Many times, we do things and afterwards we are sorry. In those instances, we were not letting God lead us, but we were moved by our emotions. We should always allow God to work out things for us because we all can use more blessings, grace, deliverances, healings, etc. in our lives. God is a good God and when the preaching of the word of God happens, we should listen and obey. For every year that I did not choose to serve God, I missed all of those blessings He would have given me.

When Joshua and the Children of Israel faced the Wall of Jericho in Joshua 5:12-15, Joshua was probably wondering how the wall was going to come down. God gave him instructions of what He wanted Joshua to do to cause the wall to fall. Joshua and Israel had to have faith in God and trust and obey His instructions.

“Now Jericho was straitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in” (Joshua 6:1). Sometimes we can have a wall that we need to march around in prayer, praise, etc. until God causes that wall to come down. God can pull that wall down so that we have peace and people can come together. The biggest wall we needed to come down in our lives was sin.

“For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; and that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby; and came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father” (Ephesians 2:14-18).

God sent Jesus to tear down the wall of sin for us because we needed a savior; we could not do it ourselves. Rather than running ourselves into the wall, we ought to trust God and obey His Word because Jesus is the answer.

God bless all of you,

Bishop Charles D. Smith
Gulf Coast Jurisdiction

