

Testimonies:

Minister Shaundra D. Smith Cadogan: I give all honor and praise to God, to Christ who is my life, and to the Spirit who keeps me. Truly all things work together for my good. I am so grateful that the Lord continually blesses me and lifts me up. In March of this year, He blessed me with a job, whereby, He created the perfect position for me that did not exist until I was hired—with this job, God lifted me out of poverty. In October, God made a way for me to purchase a home. On our (my family) way to a funeral in North Carolina, my father told me that when we returned, there would be a house for me (I had been searching), and a week or so after we returned, there was. It was the right price, the right amount of space for me and my son, and I just loved it when I walked in to see it with the realtor. I had seen several homes before, for which I made offers that did not come to fruition. But when I made an offer on the home God blessed me with, the seller accepted my offer the very next morning. Things went so smoothly after that, that it was mind boggling—before I knew it, I was a homeowner. God took me from poverty to owning a home in less than a year. And on top of all these things, I will be getting a raise on my job in January. Truly, it is He who gives us the power to get wealth, and because it all belongs to Him anyway, my God will supply every need according to His riches in glory.

Thank you, Lord, for your love, goodness, and mercy.
